Produce News

Broccoli: Broccoli Crowns are in stock, now out of Salinas. Supply has tightened up with varying weather causing low production. Organic Broccoli crowns are limited, and availability is day to day. Sweet Baby Broccoli is in good supply. Romanesco is temporarily gapping due to insect pressure and gaps between fields. Broccoli Rabe/Rapini is in good supply. Organic Broccoli De Cicco is available from Coke Farm, although limited at times.

Cauliflower: Cauliflower has become active with the recent weather changes, prices are continuing to rise; seeing some insect pressure causing limited supplies. Sweet Baby Cauliflower is back in stock and in good supply with the warmer weather. Organic Cauliflower is limited and subject to gapping; seeing quite a bit of insect pressure especially on Organic. Green, Orange and Purple Cauliflower are in stock. We have started to see insect pressure on the colored Cauliflower as well.

Eggplant: Full Belly Farms Organic Rosa Bianca, Listada Di Gandia Eggplant and Mixed Toybox are all in stock. Fresno grown 24ct Eggplant is now in stock with steady supplies. Mexico-grown Indian and Thai Eggplant supplies are steady. Italian and Japanese Eggplant supplies are improving as the crops have transitioned to California.

Lettuce: Babe Farms Baby Mixed Lettuce, Green & Red Butter Cake, Little Gem & Pink Rhône Lettuce are all in stock this week. Lollo Rosa is gapping due to insect pressure. Hitchcock Farms Salinas-grown Baby Iceberg Lettuce and Tanamura & Antle's Artisan Lettuces supplies are steady. Sweet Gem is being discontinued due to insect pressure. Brisa Ranches Organic Mixed Salanova Lettuces are back in stock.

Melons: Durst Farms Organic Blackjack Watermelons supplies are steady. The Melons are averaging 15lb this week. Full Belly Farms Organic Galia, Goddess, Piel De Sapo, Orchid & Yellow Doll Watermelon supplies are steady. County Lines Organic Orange Crisp Watermelons are limited to stock on hand as the season is ending. California-grown Watermelons have started from the Central Valley with good color, sugar levels and crisp texture. California-grown Cantaloupes and Honeydew Melons are now in stock. Good quality and sugar levels.

Peppers: California- grown Green, Red & Yellow Bell Pepper supplies are limited, and prices are up this week as the growing areas are changing from the Mexico and the desert areas to the Central Valley. Diced Green, Red and Yellow Bell Peppers as well as diced & sliced Jalapeno are available by preorder.

Potatoes: Idaho-grown Russet supplies are running out quickly and we are using mainly 50, 60 & 90ct Russets to start the week. We will receive limited quantities of larger Potatoes on Wednesday. The new crops are starting by the end of the month. Prices are up this week on the limited supplies. California-grown Chipperbec Potatoes supplies are steady. Full Belly's Organic Banana Fingerling, Bintji, Russian Blue, Yellow Finn and Yukon Gold Potatoes are in stock. Specialty/Fingerlings – The French fingerling season is done, and new crop is expected to start in September. New crop Banana Fingerlings have started up this week. Previous crop of Amarosa fingerlings are still available for another 2 weeks, then new crop should be ready by then; quality is hit and miss. Mixed Marble potatoes are still coming from Washington/Canada; quality is hit and miss.

Red & Yukon Golds – Both California-grown Red and Yukon potatoes are available.

Yams – Japanese Sweet Potatoes are very limited and expensive; Garnet, Jewel and Medium Sweet yams have steady supply, all grown in San Joaquin County; quality is hit and miss.
