Produce News

Asparagus: Caborca, Mexico growing region volume will continue to slow down until the last week of March. California is expecting to start this week with limited supply. Durst Farms Organic Green & Purple Asparagus are scheduled to arrive March 9th.

Cauliflower: Cauliflower supplies are short and prices are high due to Diamondback Moth pressure in the Yuma growing area. Sweet Baby Cauliflower, and Organic Cauliflower is back in stock. Green, Orange and Purple Cauliflower are expected back in stock on 3/4.

Chicories: Dirty Girl's Mixed Chicories and Puntarella are now in stock. County Lines Mixed Chicories are finished for the season. Babe Farms Blond Frisee and County Lines Organic Frisee supplies are steady.

Greens: Organic Broccoli Spigarello, Green and Rainbow Chard, Lacinato Kale and Curly Mustard supplies are steady. County Lines Organic Braising Greens, Red Frill Mustard and Bloomsdale supplies are limited and subject to gapping until the new crops start. Riverdog Farms Organic Red Russian Kale supplies are steady. Knoll Farms Fava Greens supplies are steady but are limited to once a week deliveries. Knoll's Stinging Nettles have finished for the season. Jacobs Farms Organic Stinging Nettles are in stock. Ratto Brothers conventional Baby Bok Choy, Collard Greens, Lacinato and Curly Mustard supplies are steady.

Limes: Weather in Southern Mexico has caused bloom drop and sizing issues. Prices are climbing.

Onions: Green Onions are very tight again from rain and high winds last winter. Relief not expected until March.

Tomatoes: Market has jumped up again on Romas and 2-layer tomatoes; cold weather in the growing area caused short supply and quality issues. Cherry Tomato supply remains limited; Baja continues to gap and Central Mexico quality is hit and miss due to recent rain and cold weather.
